I have consulted with Patti Hokanson of Quilts from the Trail on the content of this work order and understand and agree with the content. I further understand that the quilter will not be held responsible for any quilting problems that are due to piecing problems in the top or backing. I understand that no refunds will be made once the quilt is completed. If there is anything that does not meet my approval, I will bring that to her attention within two (2) weeks of receiving the quilt and I further understand that every reasonable attempt will be made to rectify the problem.
